[] photography of [] reveals additional expansion at Airframe Plant No 31 located on the SE edge of the city of Tbilisi, USSR (Figure 1).

The probable final assembly building under construction 1, which had a roof coverage of 51,000 sq ft in [] has nearly tripled in size. It now appears as a double-bay, arched-roof building 900 ft long and 165 ft wide with a roof coverage of 148,500 sq ft. The apparent completion of this probable final assembly building adds 97,500 sq ft of roof coverage to the production area making a total of 1,179,200 sq ft.
